

3D Printing for a Competitive Edge

Start Date: 4/26/2017 8:30 AM

End Date: 4/26/2017 10:30 AM

The International Business Network
Invites you to a program featuring
"3-D Printing for a Competitive Edge";

3-D Printing offers the opportunity to quickly make parts and tooling for small run orders, a frequent requirement in international business. The Youngstown area is a center for this technology.

The International Business Network is sponsoring a meeting at the Youngstown Business Incubator for a briefing on how your business can employ this capability. Advance registration, including email address, by Friday, April 21, 2017 is required for security screening.
